Letter of Recommendation

Dear Sir or Madam,

I write to your outfit on behalf of the organizers of Django Europe Conference requesting for your assistance and cooperation regarding our participants who have booked accommodation from your hotel.

Following the outbreak of the global pandemic by COVID-19, and the related uncertainties regarding world health in the coming days and months, we have decided to postpone the conference to next year.

For this reason, we kindly request that you fully refund the fees that have been paid by our participants to them. We assure you that should the turbulence in world health be calm in due time, our participants will still fall on you for accommodation, as your hotel is a partner for this conference.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
The DjangoCon Europe 2020 organisers
